

FACE TO FACE WITH AN EMERGENCY

Lewis Bros. & Co. to the Rescue of the R. L. Bartlett Shoe Store

ADJUSTMENT SALE

Bartlett Shoe Store Throws Its Entire Stock on the Market at Public Sale

GEORGE MUNRO Merchant Adjuster of LEWIS BROS. & CO.

Bartlett orders out half of this stock regardless of cost and loss. Too many shoes and not enough money. A crisis stares us in the face and it is imperative that I unload, and at once. Lewis Bros. & Co. are in full charge of this, the most sensational and colossal price wrecking shoe catastrophe that ever startled the people of Josephine County. Lewis Bros. & Co. make the prices, and they are ripped, cut and slashed to the very bottom.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY IS OUR CRY

OVERSTOCKED.—Bartlett bought too much and is now paying the penalty of his mistake. Remember, people, this is not a sale of cheaply made, thrown together shoes, made for a bargain rush—but it's all, every penny's worth of it, high grade, dependable, up-to-the-minute footwear—all Bartlett's own stock—and the best and finest shoes in the land. MUNRO, the Lewis Bros. & Co.'s representative, is now on the ground in full charge. The orders are imperative: close out HALF of this big shoe stock and at once. Losses won't stand in the way, for we realize that only bargains of the most sensational sort can accomplish our object, and for 13 days Lewis Bros. & Co. will cut and slash prices to a point that must and will make the people buy. Bartlett's only orders are: "Sell the goods and turn them into money quick."
